2. The following reference teaches logic for storing a separate mask corresponding to each of a plurality of memory locations, and logic, responsive to a request for reading a memory location, for outputting a bit-wise exclusive-OR of data stored in the memory location and the corresponding mask.

U.S. PATENT NUMBER

3. The following reference teaches a conversion tool that generates configuration data describing a detailed restructure indication to enable the program executing apparatus to restructure the address, and a program making access to the restructured address.

Art Unit: 2185

3. As per claims 1 and 25

The primary reasons for allowance of claims 1 and 25 in the instant application is the combination with the inclusion in these claims of the limitation of a method/computer program product for allocating memory in a data processing system wherein a memory allocation request received from a running process includes "an indication of a mask bit pattern".

4. As per claim 14

The primary reasons for allowance of claim 14 in the instant application is the combination with the inclusion in this claim of the limitation of a "decoding the memory address by replacing the one or more embedded flag bits with bits of the memory address, in dependence on the mask bit pattern, and reading data from that memory address."

5. As per claim 15

The primary reasons for allowance of claim 15 in the instant application is the combination with the inclusion in this claim of the limitation of a memory allocation mechanism wherein a memory allocation request received from a running process includes "a mask bit pattern".

- 6. Dependent claims 2-12, 16-19 and 24 are allowable at least for the reasons recited above as including all of the limitations of the allowable independent base claims upon which they depend.
- 7. The prior art of record neither anticipates nor renders obvious the above-recited combinations.
- 8. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
